

My Son Sanctuary And Boat Tour

Morning tour: 8 am - 1:30 pm

Travel back to the days of the Champa Kingdom on a small group tour by bus and boat from Hoi An. Visit the My Son Sanctuary, and then enjoy lunch on board a boat as you cruise down the Thu Bon river

What you'll do

Experience everyday life in rural Vietnam by bus and boat on a day trip to the My Son Sanctuary and along the Thu Bon river. Depart Hoi An via the Cua Dai bridge and get spectacular views of the Hoi An river system and Cham Islands as you depart

Arrive at a fishing village in time to see the market traders selling their evening catch. Continue into the "Valley of Kings" to discover the former 4th to 13th-century capital of the Champa Kingdom. Watch a traditional dance performance before making your way along a jungle trail. Then, explore the Cham ruins and learn the history of the sanctuary where the Cham monarchs were buried

Head back towards Hoi An for your 2-hour boat cruise on the Thu Bon river. Climb aboard at Nguyen Hoang boat dock and sail past local villages such as the fishing village of Duy Hai and the carpentry village of Kim Bong. Enjoy a light noodle lunch of pork or seafood on board the boat as you cruise back to the Nguyen Hoang boat dock in the Old Town

Inclusions:

- Hotel pick up and drop off
- Transportation
- Light lunch on board a boat
- Local English-speaking tour guide
- 2-hour boat trip

Note:

- Bring sunscreen and a hat
- Suitable footwear is advised

